Steven:

I think this is fair. I am not asking you to say anything that you would not say in response to my sanctions motion. Nor am I asking you to agree that my email about your wife was appropriate because I understand how you feel even if I disagree with you. I am also not asking you to disavow the gang allegation, although I do think that you should do so.

Finally, the only reason that I am agreeing not to seek sanctions is because you explained to me that you were not in a position to control what Tyrone did. I don't agree with you as a matter of law, but I am sympathetic to your career concerns. However, I cannot allow him to use you as a foil.

So, if this is OK with you, send it back to me and I will not seek sanctions

Dear Judd:

As we have discussed:

Tyrone Blackburn sent a letter to the Court on January 22, 2022 in which he stated:

"An example of [Mr. Burstein's] deplorable behavior stems from his sick obsession with Mr. Gordon's wife. Mr. Burstein went scrummaging through the comments section of youtube posts in search of comments posted by Mrs. Gordon. Not only was his act of cyberstalking Mrs. Gordon creepy, but it was also weird, and beneath the dignity of this profession."

I write to confirm the following:

- 1. I did not see Mr. Blackburn's letter before he sent it;
- 2. I would have objected to these comment if I had seen the letter before it was sent (although I had no control over anything which Mr. Blackburn filed with the Court);
- 3. I do not in any way agree with them; and
- 4. I never at any time said anything to Mr. Blackburn even to suggest that I agreed the views he expressed in his letter;

As we have also discussed, I was not lead counsel in the case against Ms. Maraj and I had no control whatsoever over the filings submitted by Mr. Blackburn.

I appreciate the fact that you and your client have accepted my explanations as set forth above and have acknowledged that, in my role as Mr. Blackburn's co-counsel, I never acted in bad faith and that I had a good faith belief in the truth of Ms. Hough's factual allegations.

As you may expect, Tyrone is going to come after me once I send this email. I am already facing threats.

Thank you, Judd. I will send under a separate email. Please note that due to my imploring, Tyrone has corrected his declaration to say "Upon information and belief."

As you may expect, Tyrone is going to come after me once I send this email. I am already facing threats.

Finally, the only reason that I am agreeing not to seek sanctions is because you explained to me that you were not in a position to control what Tyrone did. I don't agree with you as a matter of law, but I am sympathetic to your career concerns. However, I cannot allow him to use you as a foil.

Dear Judd:

As we have discussed:

Tyrone Blackburn sent a letter to the Court on January 22, 2022 in which he stated:

“An example of [Mr. Burstein’s] deplorable behavior stems from his sick obsession with Mr. Gordon’s wife. Mr. Burstein went scrummaging through the comments section of youtube posts in search of comments posted by Mrs. Gordon. Not only was his act of cyberstalking Mrs. Gordon creepy, but it was also weird, and beneath the dignity of this profession.”

I write to confirm the following:

1. I did not see Mr. Blackburn’s letter before he sent it;
2. I would have objected to these comment if I had seen the letter before it was sent (although I had no control over anything which Mr. Blackburn filed with the Court);
3. I do not in any way agree with them; and
4. I never at any time said anything to Mr. Blackburn even to suggest that I agreed the views he expressed in his letter;

As we have also discussed, I was not lead counsel in the case against Ms. Maraj and I had no control whatsoever over the filings submitted by Mr. Blackburn.

I appreciate the fact that you and your client have accepted my explanations as set forth above and have acknowledged that, in my role as Mr. Blackburn’s co-counsel, I never acted in bad faith and that I had a good faith belief in the truth of Ms. Hough’s factual allegations.

Dear Judd:

As we have discussed:

Tyrone Blackburn sent a letter to the Court on January 22, 2022 in which he stated:

“An example of [Mr. Burstein’s] deplorable behavior stems from his sick obsession with Mr. Gordon's wife. Mr. Burstein went scrummaging through the comments section of youtube posts in search of comments posted by Mrs. Gordon. Not only was his act of cyberstalking Mrs. Gordon creepy, but it was also weird, and beneath the dignity of this profession.”

I write to confirm the following:

1. I did not see Mr. Blackburn’s letter before he sent it;
2. I would have objected to these comment if I had seen the letter before it was sent (although I had no control over anything which Mr. Blackburn ultimately filed with the Court);
3. I do not in any way agree with them; and
4. I never at any time said anything to Mr. Blackburn even to suggest that I agreed the views he expressed in his letter;

As we have also discussed, I was not lead counsel in the case against Ms. Maraj and I had no control over statements of facts ultimately submitted in Mr. Blackburn's filings.

I appreciate the fact that you and your client have accepted my explanations as set forth above and have acknowledged that, in my role as Mr. Blackburn’s co-counsel, I never acted in bad faith and that I had a good faith belief in the truth of Ms. Hough’s factual allegations.

Respectfully,

Steven

Thank you. If you cannot answer this question, do not worry about it and I will ask someone else. At the hearing on Monday, the Judge simply wants to confirm that the client terminated me and which type of lien I am seeking, correct? It is my understanding that the purported reasons are irrelevant, as a client can terminate counsel for any or no reason at all. This is not me insinuating that I did anything wrong -- candidly, I think that I'm being extorted to not seek a lien by threats of asserting untrue reasons for my termination. I'm only asking you because my boss is unsure and I'm sure you've been to one of these in your 40 years.

I am also not asking you to disavow the gang allegation, although I do think that you should do so.

Finally, the only reason that I am agreeing not to seek sanctions is because you explained to me that you were not in a position to control what Tyrone did. I don't agree with you as a matter of law, but I am sympathetic to your career concerns. However, I cannot allow him to use you as a foil.

So, if this is OK with you, send it back to me and I will not seek sanctions

Dear Judd:

As we have discussed:

Tyrone Blackburn sent a letter to the Court on January 22, 2022 in which he stated:

“An example of [Mr. Burstein's] deplorable behavior stems from his sick obsession with Mr. Gordon's wife. Mr. Burstein went scrummaging through the comments section of youtube posts in search of comments posted by Mrs. Gordon. Not only was his act of cyberstalking Mrs. Gordon creepy, but it was also weird, and beneath the dignity of this profession.”

I write to confirm the following:

1. I did not see Mr. Blackburn's letter before he sent it;
2. I would have objected to these comment if I had seen the letter before it was sent (although I had no control over anything which Mr. Blackburn filed with the Court);
3. I do not in any way agree with them; and
4. I never at any time said anything to Mr. Blackburn even to suggest that I agreed the views he expressed in his letter;

As we have also discussed, I was not lead counsel in the case against Ms. Maraj and I had no control whatsoever over the filings submitted by Mr. Blackburn.

I appreciate the fact that you and your client have accepted my explanations as set forth above and have acknowledged that, in my role as Mr. Blackburn's co-counsel, I never acted in bad faith and that I had a good faith belief in the truth of Ms. Hough's factual allegations.

Dear Judd:

As we have discussed:

Tyrone Blackburn sent a letter to the Court on January 22, 2022 in which he stated:

“An example of [Mr. Burstein’s] deplorable behavior stems from his sick obsession with Mr. Gordon's wife. Mr. Burstein went scrummaging through the comments section of youtube posts in search of comments posted by Mrs. Gordon. Not only was his act of cyberstalking Mrs. Gordon creepy, but it was also weird, and beneath the dignity of this profession.”

I write to confirm the following:

1. I did not see Mr. Blackburn’s letter before he sent it;
2. I would have objected to these comments if I had seen the letter before it was sent (although I had no control over anything which Mr. Blackburn ultimately filed with the Court);
3. I do not in any way agree with them; and
4. I never at any time said anything to Mr. Blackburn even to suggest that I agreed with the views as expressed in his letter;

As we have also discussed, I was not lead counsel in the case against Ms. Maraj and I had no control over statements of facts ultimately submitted in Mr. Blackburn's filings.

I appreciate the fact that you and your client have accepted my explanations as set forth above and have acknowledged that, in my role as Mr. Blackburn’s co-counsel, I never acted in bad faith and that I had a good faith belief in the truth of Ms. Hough’s factual allegations.

Respectfully,

Steven

So preserve it. There is nothing for you to be concerned about. Our communications were entirely appropriate. He is just lashing out.
